

A Little Princess.

On Tuesday 10th October, this week, the M and M Theatre Company visited the school and performed the play: A Little Princess by Frances Hodgson Burnett. We were treated to a fabulous extravaganza of costume, vibrant sets, evocative music and humour wrapped up in the wonderful story of Sara Crewe and her life in a Victorian Girls School. The children thoroughly enjoyed the play, the actors were fantastically convincing; they made us hoot with laughter and cry with sadness as the drama unfolded. Luckily, it all ended happily, as Sara was reunited with her Father. We all agreed, it was a wonderful performance and a great opportunity for the children to experience live theatre in school
