

Sports club have been learning to play Hockey. They have been learning how to pass quickly and accurately and have also learned the importance of listening to your teammates. They are showing great improvement both in their agility and techniques since their first lesson - well done!

